How does a typical online class work?

Classes are entirely online, and students will engage with peers and faculty using a course management system. Online learning takes discipline. You’ll be required to complete readings, view lectures, participate in discussion boards, and complete assignments. Some courses may be entirely asynchronous (you can view lectures and complete assignments at your own pace within the timeframe of the course you register for) while others may require you to attend scheduled online meetings or discussion sections.

Tag:
General [1]

Source URL: http://uaonline.arizona.edu/how-does-typical-online-class-work

Links