Supportive Education for Returning Veterans (SERV)

Professional Resiliency

Welcome to UA Online.
We saved a seat for you.

Switching between military and civilian life can be challenging. That’s why UA Online offers the Professional Resiliency Colloquium. It’s the perfect first step in exploring your potential beyond your military career.

This course, available 100% online at no cost to veterans and active/reserve military, is designed around:

- Your life and experiences.
- Working as a team to solve real problems and apply practical solutions.
- Developing personal and professional resiliency.

Resiliency is a strong indicator that someone will finish school, get a job and progress in life. In fact, 90% of students who participated in the pilot study for this course went on to graduate.

Fill out the Request for Information form to learn more about building your academic squad, developing resiliency and tackling life’s challenges head-on.
The SERV program is facilitated by Veterans Education and Transition Services (VETS) Military Connected Student Center.

VETS strives to provide the tools and assistance necessary for students to achieve academic success while fostering camaraderie and engagement.

View detailed program information [1]

Source URL: http://uaonline.arizona.edu/supportive-education-returning-veterans

Links